Dear Community,

This year, we broke with the tradition of granting access into the main PVCCE gate on Halloween.

We sincerely apologize to all of you for the lack of notice on this change.

We also recognize that many of you spend considerable time and effort in decorating your homes and purchasing candy for the expected Trick-or-Treaters. We sincerely apologize to all of you for this lack of concern on our part.

This last minute decision to disallow access this year came as a result of a few people's concerns inside the gates, but not the majority.

Unless there are extenuating circumstances next year, we will go back to the tradition of allowing access through the main PVCCE gate on Halloween.

Regards,
Bobby Graziano
